

Internship Opportunity: Research Intern - Media Studies and Gender Studies

Location: 85% remote and 15% ON-SITE at Silberman and considering COVID measures. | Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work, 2180 Third Avenue and 119th Street, 8th Floor

The Center for Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College, CENTRO is the largest university-based research institute, library, and archive dedicated to the Puerto Rican experience in the United States.

Research Unit

The Research Unit is charged with the production of knowledge based on the investigation of subjects that bear on the general well-being of Puerto Ricans. To this end, the unit strives to obtain sponsored research grants to leverage our resources in order to promote among our staff and other partners the publication of articles in refereed journals to heighten the impact of our research on relevant fields.

Description

CENTRO seeks motivated and talented students to join us in realizing our mission to research, preserve and share the Puerto Rican experience.

Intern will support research processes connected to the completion of a book, a CUNY event and other related events. Research traces the current momentum reflected in queer performances by younger generations in the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico from the turn of the 21st century until now. The book, in particular, traces the growth of body and sex positivity discourses in the archipelago and uses them to identify key generational shifts in the expression of irreverence and detachment from cisheteropatriarchal norms in the region.
